DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The scope of the recitation "source of electromagnetic radiation comprises ultrasound" is not clear from the claim language and therefore renders the claim indefinite. It is not clear to the examiner whether this recitation implies that the electromagnetic (EM) radiation source generates ultrasound/ultrasonic waves or if it implies that the source of the EM energy is an ultrasonic source. By definition, ultrasonic source generates mechanical/sound waves.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 7 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by

Doiron et al. U.S. Patent No. 5,698,866

Doiron et al. disclose a phototherapeutic device useful for treating skin conditions such as psoriasis and hyperbilirubinemia, the device comprising a plurality of light emitting diodes. Doiron et al. further teach that the method of treating psoriasis with the aide of photoactive agent applied to the skin, and irradiating the effected skin with an optical energy from LED array is known in the art (see col. 3, lines 37-48).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Doiron et al. in view of Kaas U.S. Patent No. 6,459,087.

Although Doiron et al. teach the step of measuring the light dose delivered to the tissue (see col. 10, lines 20-23), they do not particularly teach the desired light dose for the treatment. However, Kaas teaches a treatment device, which provides a light dose of at least 5.4 mJ/cm² (col. 1, line 64 to col. 2, line 2). Kaas further teaches that his treatment device is suitable for the treatment of psoriasis (col. 4, lines 47-51).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the applicant's invention to modify Doiron et al. in view of Kaas and use a light dose of higher than 5.4 mJ/cm² so as to provide energy fluence that is suitable for the treatment of psoriasis as presently claimed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Asawanda et al. "308-nm Excimer Laser for the Treatment of Psoriasis, A Dose-Response Study," Arch Dermatol, Vol. 136, May 2000, pp. 619-624, disclose a method for the treatment of psoriasis, the method comprising the step of irradiating the effected skin with a light having multiples of predetermined minimal erythema dose (MED), wherein the predetermined MED is between 114.05 to 325.86 mJ/cm². See page 619, under the subtitle "interventions," and the last line of Table 1.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
